

WHAT DO WE OFFER YOU?

Languages and areas of expertise

We translate into and out of every language.

Our main subject areas are:

Tourism, automobile, consumer goods:

Formats: websites, brochures, flyers, print and email campaigns, press texts, tenders, quotations, contracts etc.

Pharmaceutical:

Formats: study material, studies, information brochures for relatives, patient information, mailings, press texts etc.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

Easy, Easier, Exxacto

1. Your source text

Send us your text for translation and provide us with details of the desired target language(s) and the deadline (files transmitted to us are treated with the strictest of confidence, in keeping with privacy regulations).

2. Our quotation

We will quickly send you a non-binding quotation.

3. And we're off!

After receiving your order confirmation we start working on the translation right away!

HOW WE STAND OUT?

Our quality standards

Exxacto - our name says it all!

Two principles play a key role:

"Double proofreading" - as well as being proofread by the translator, translated texts are also checked internally to ensure linguistic and formal accuracy.

"Native speaker principle" - we work exclusively with experienced, certified professional translators who only translate into their mother tongue. This allows us to provide translations that are linguistically perfect.

WHO ARE WE?

Get to know us

Exxacto is run by Eva Bartilucci (certified translator) and Frank Czygan (master's degree in business administration).

Our team also includes qualified freelance translators who have all undergone a rigorous selection process.
